LEAPIN' LEPRECHAUNS, IT'S CAKE-AMAGA! GIRL SCOUTS' ANNUAL PANCAKE BREAKFAST AT CAMP LAKAMAGA

The Girl Scout Council of St. Croix Valley is hosting its open house at Camp Lakamaga, the second annual Cake-amaga all you can eat pancake and porkie (sausage) breakfast held on Saturday, March 17, St. Patrick's Day, from 9 a.m. – 1 p.m., at Camp Lakamaga, 12303 Lakamaga Trail North, Marine on St. Croix, Minn. Cost is $6 per person and includes maple syrup demonstrations, self-guided camp tours, and summer camp information.

“Retreat to nature, enjoy a hearty breakfast, and learn the rich history of Camp Lakamaga,” encourages Carrie Wilson, director of Camp Lakamaga. “We hope everyone joins us for this great opportunity to visit with new and old friends while learning more about what the camp provides for Girl Scouts and other community groups year-round.”

The Girl Scout Council of St. Croix Valley's Camp Lakamaga has been providing a friendly, safe, and beautiful place for girls and the greater community to build courage, confidence, and character since 1926. Since that time, three generations of Girl Scouts have learned outdoor skills, gained leadership opportunities, and made new friends at the 170-acre camp on Big Marine Lake.

For more information, to register, or directions call 651-227-8835 or 1-800-845-0787, or visit www.girlscoutscv.org.

About the Girl Scout Council of St. Croix Valley

In partnership with 7,100 adult volunteers, the Girl Scout Council of St. Croix Valley helps more than 17,000 girls grow strong in 11 counties of eastern Minnesota and western Wisconsin. Girl Scouts is the world's preeminent organization for girls, building girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place.
